The last week of July is recognized by the USCCB (United States Council of Catholic Bishops) as Natural Family Planning Week. New studies from Billings and the World Health Organization show that NFP is 99.5% effective in planning families (see www.woomb.org). Also, couples who use NFP in their marriage report how sharing in NFP has strengthened their marriage. Mary Martin, MD, FACOG, has brought an exciting cutting edge treatment for infertility to Oklahoma. This new diagnostic treatment is used in accordance with the Church's teaching on infertility treatment, is simple to use and helps the physician and patient understand the cause of infertility and how to treat it. An informational session on this new treatment will take place on July 25 at 7 p.m. in the Catholic Pastoral Center on 7501 N.W. Expressway. For more info on this special session or about NFP classes call the Office of Family Life at 405-721-8944 or email oknfp@yahoo.com. If you are interested in teaching NFP here at our parish, let me know.

Thanks to Deirdre Hite for organizing the receptions last weekend in the gathering area after the 5 p.m. Vigil Mass, and 8 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Sunday Masses for Deacon Bill Bawden and his wife, Sylvia. Thanks to the Hispanic Council for doing the same after the 12 noon Mass, and a special thanks to our Knights of Columbus for cooking a pancake breakfast last Sunday to help welcome our new deacon. Officers for our local Knights Council were recently installed with Art Valdez becoming the new Grand Knight. A special thank-you to Rick Lindsey for his fine leadership these past two years as Grand Knight.

Another in a series of Virginia Campbell concert series will be offered in our church this Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. Beat the summer heat and refresh your spirit by coming to hear some beautiful music played on our grand piano by Virginia herself. Your church bulletin is your ticket into the concert.

I will be leaving town on Tuesday morning for a two-week vacation, returning here on August 8th. I will be taking a road trip to Nebraska, Iowa, and Minnesota to visit priest friends in those 3 states. Fr. Ross will be arriving back at the parish this Wednesday evening and will be here while I am gone. Fr. Joe Kolb will be celebrating the Spanish Mass on Sunday, July 30 and Sunday, August 6.

*In the peace of Christ,
Rev. Joseph A. Jacobi*
