Dear Friends in Christ,

This past week I attended a couple of presentations by the president of the National Catholic Bioethics Center as part of the Continuing Education program for our clergy. Topics included stem cell research and cloning. These are just some of the issues that our Church addresses in its teaching about the seamless garment of life—that all life, from conception through the time of natural death—has a God-given dignity that demands our respect. On this Respect Life Sunday we are challenged to confront the "culture of death" by standing up not only for the unborn child in the womb but also for the convicted killer on death row. Birth Choice is hosting a Life Walk beginning at 2 p.m. this Sunday from the Myriad Gardens Water Stage.

In celebration of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi on this Tuesday, October 4th, I will lead a "Blessing of Animals" at 3:15 p.m. at the baseball field, which sits on the N.E. corner of our property on Hefner Road. If you bring your pet to be blessed, please either have your pet on a leash or in a cage (or for fish, in a fishbowl).

Where children are involved, the Internet can hold hidden dangers. All parents are invited to attend a presentation on Internet safety by an FBI agent at 6:30 p.m. this Wednesday in Meeting Rooms 1&2.

Please pray for the members of our Parish Staff as we go on a team-building retreat led by Fr. Ross at the diocesan cabins at Lake Texhoma from Thursday evening, October 6 – Saturday noon, October 8th. The parish office will be open on Friday as one of our volunteers will be present to answer the phones and attend to visitors.

Miracles never cease--our parish photo directory has finally arrived. After being lost in the Bermuda Triangle of photo directories for nearly 2 years, it has resurfaced. If you had your picture taken for this directory, you can drop by the parish office to pick up your free copy. As in the "Lost and Found" parables of Jesus, we rejoice because what was lost has now been found.

The family that our parish is sponsoring that has been displaced by Hurricane Katrina found an apartment to live in. They are grateful for the Wal-Mart gift-cards that they have received. Now they are looking to furnish their apartment. If interested in donating furnishings, talk to Tish Eason at 721-5651 X 149.

*In the peace of Christ,
Rev. Joseph A. Jacobi*
