Dear friends in Christ,

This Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. our 10 a.m. Mass choir will present a Sacred Choral Concert entitled "Come to Us Creative Spirit." This concert will take place at St. Edward Chapel on the Casady School campus, just east of the intersection of Britton and Penn. The choir, under the direction of Brent McWilliams, has been practicing for several months in preparation for this concert and will be singing beautiful pieces of music. The concert will take place at St. Edward Chapel because it will be taped, and that space is much more conducive to taping than our church space is. CD's will be on sale in the near future with the music from this concert—this would make a good Christmas gift for anyone you know who loves sacred music. Come out this Sunday afternoon and support our choir in this important endeavor.

In honor of Veterans Day in the week just past, our Knights of Columbus 4th Degree Color Guard will present the colors at the beginning of the 10 a.m. Mass this Sunday. The color guard will lead the choir and ministers into church in the opening procession. Veterans who are present at each Mass will be recognized after Communion.

You may have noticed last week that the children who are dismissed after the Opening Prayer for their own Liturgy of the Word in the chapel are now processing out with a beautiful processional cross. Dick and Peggy Feuerborn of St. Monica Parish made the cross and the 2 stands while Jerry and Carol Anne Rakosky of our parish donated the corpus of Christ for the cross. Thanks to the Feuerborns and Rakoskys for such a beautiful gift to our parish.

Next Saturday morning, November 19th, our three candidates for the permanent diaconate take another step toward ordination as they will be commissioned as acolytes. Please keep Stan McKay, Alejandro Randolph, and Jerry Rakosky in your prayers as they prepare for their ordination in November 2006.

Thanks to Polly Keenan for her good work in organizing the All Souls Day reception for parishioners and their families who lost loved ones this past year and to the Altar Society for providing such a fine meal. Polly also organized the Funeral Planning Panel presentation that took place on November 3rd.

This week the U.S. Bishops have their annual meeting in Washington, D.C. Please keep our Archbishop Beltran and the other bishops in your prayers throughout the coming week.

*In the peace of Christ,
Fr. Joseph A. Jacobi*
